Missions Committee

Missions today, as it always has been, is full of challenges no matter where one serves. Just the same we need to be ready for everything. In our time in WorldVenture we have seen a lot, but there is also much to learn as the context around the world is always changing. This is an area I lead in with WV, so I need to be well prepared.

Please pray this week as Marty is in Alabama for a special training for missions leaders on how to develop a crisis response. The training is three full days long and covers a great deal. The reality of the world we are living and working, how we can be proactive and how to react well to situations. This is a necessary part of obedience to the Great Commission.

Please pray that I will learn what I need to learn and that I will never need to use it. That is a strange request, but I want to be prepared.

I am fully vaccinated, so pray for protection from COVID. Wearing my mask.

Thank you for your partnership.
