Happy Valentine's Day and greetings from cold Wisconsin! (We are starting to get excited for spring).

We'll jump right into exciting family news: Sara and John announced they are having baby #5 – a boy – coming in May! What a blessing that we are all so excited for.

We are happy to announce that Amy and Dave Mankin are engaged! We are super excited to have Dave join our family. They are planning a wedding ceremony in Nashville, Tennessee in July.

This semester is off to a great start. That feeling of disconnectedness which we mentioned in our last newsletter probably was homesickness. We are now feeling much better and more settled in this Wisconsin school and our new ministries. We have officially become members at our church here, we are getting to know people, and that has helped a lot. Todd was asked to teach a session on “Man and Sin” in “The Path,” which is the church’s every-other-week discipleship course. Todd really enjoyed that opportunity.

Todd began teaching his elective last week – every afternoon at 1:10 for the next 2-1/2 weeks. He is on the EBI Leadership Team and on the “A-Team” which coordinates the different departments in the school – so he has meetings two afternoons a week. He enjoys this level of involvement.

Sue was honored to be asked by EBI’s online department to mentor a local married woman in her Discipleship Practicum. This has been an encouraging and enriching time! You can pray for Sarah; she comes to our home once a week and we discuss challenging topics like faith, grace, and acceptance. As one of three staff ladies on the Women’s Ministry Team, Sue will begin meeting one-on-one with staff ladies for the purpose of coming alongside and seeing how they are doing.

We are learning through experience that it takes time (more than we expected) to adjust to “everything new.” God is faithful in it all! Thank you for your love and prayers – they are felt and are very much needed!

Love in Christ,
Todd and Sue
