Missions Committee

Last fall was busy. With travel possible, Marty & Denise traveled on three different continents looking at new opportunities, current ministries, and interaction with a large number of missionaries. Our travels also included leading a missions seminary in South America and preaching at the 175th anniversary of a church in the US. It was also their 85th missions conference. So far in January we have been meeting with the regional directors, putting together plans for 2023 and dealing with some events overseas. We are so grateful for your prayers and God's leading.

Now we are on to 2023. Marty will be heading to SE Asia next Saturday. Then Denise and Marty will be in California for a missions conference and later in February flying out for discussions on a global partnership for ministry. Long flights aren't so bad, it allows me to catch up on communication.

Please thank God for his goodness in travel and conversations over the last three months. We don't always know what awaits us when we get off of an airplane, but God does.

As we look forward please remember us in prayer.

1. Health. Travel exposes us to many exciting things.
2. Conversations. Each of our travels through the middle of February will involve many conversations and a need for wisdom for each of those conversations.
3. Partnerships Several of our conversations will involve discussions concerning future partnerships for global ministry. We are not sure where the conversations might go, but we are excited about the possibilities.

We are also looking at being able to be with you in 2023. If your church would like us to come and share, let us know.

We do appreciate our partnership with you and your prayers for us.
