

What's Happening with Hannah?

I am now fully supported financially! It has been incredible to see how God has provided over the last several weeks. This means that I also have two other important dates on the calendar: On April 30, I will be applying for my visa and on June 2, I will arrive in Vienna!

There are, of course, many other things that need doing. My calendar and task list are quickly filling up.

Now that I have a travel date on the calendar, I've been really savoring all my time with family and friends – even if sometimes it is just a quick run to Family Farm & Home to see the chicks and ducklings.

How you can be praying for me:

My mom and I will be traveling to New York City to apply for my visa. Please pray for smooth flights so that we arrive at the visa application center stress-free

Also, please pray that the visa application itself will go smoothly and that it will be accepted.

Please also pray that I can enjoy my time with family and friends before I leave, and for my heart during this transition.

If you would like to attend my commissioning service, here are the details once again:

- When: May 4 at 10:30
- Where: Baptist Bible Church, Sparta, MI

There will be a cupcake reception to follow. I'd love to see any of you there!

I hope you have a wonderful Easter!
